Constituent-wise Rational

SG Finserve Ltd

5%

Small cap ▶ Finance

SG Finserve, an NBFC specializing in providing financing solutions to channel partners such as dealers, distributors, retailers and buyers. With multiple triggers, SG Finserve is well-poised to deliver significant growth due factors such as: 1) High scope of growth in MSME Financing. 2) High Net Interest Margins, Low Leverage, Zero Gross NPAs due to extreme short term financing durations. 3) Parental advantage from APL Apollo group umbrella

P N Gadgil Jewellers Ltd

5%

Mid cap ▶ Diamond, Gems and Jewellery

P.N.Gadgil Jewellers Ltd is India's one of the fastest growing player in the gems and jewellery space. The company's legacy of craftsmanship, coupled with its strategic focus on both traditional and contemporary designs, resonates well with a broad customer base. PN Gadgil, based on its strong brand heritage, diverse product portfolio, and expanding market reach. We believe the company is well-positioned for growth in the jewellery sector. The stock has seen a major correction and is currently trading at attractive valuations.

Shivalik Bimetal Controls Ltd

3%

Small cap ▶ Non Ferrous Metals

Shivalik Bimetal Controls Ltd, A global player in shunt resistor. In past many quarters SBCL has not delivered growth due overall slowdown & limited scalability of product. Our investment rationale is that now the 2nd generation management becoming the front face of the organisation, they are on track for higher growth through forward & backward integration for their shunt business which will increase the product value by 10x times and they could also be the benefit from reduction in Chinese imports of relays as have dominant position in shunts going into Indian manufactured relays. In a nutshell, we believe that they will be increasing the growth business.

Constituent-wise Rational

BLS International Services Ltd

5%

Small cap ▶ IT - Software

BLS International Ltd, BLS International has strong market position, aggressive expansion strategy, and improving financials make it a high-growth investment opportunity. BLS International Services Ltd. (BLS) is a leading global player in visa outsourcing and government-to-citizen (G2C) services. The company has successfully transitioned from a partner-led model to a self-operated model, driving strong EBITDA margin expansion from 20% to 33% in its core visa business.

MacPower CNC Machines Ltd

3%

Small cap ▶ Engineering

MacPower CNC Machines is India's 6th Largest CNC machine manufacturer and a low cost producer having a strong balance sheet. With multiple triggers, MacPower is well poised to deliver significant growth due to factors such as: 1) India's aim to increase share of manufacturing 17% to 25% 2) Expanding capex from 2000 machines to 4500 machines 3) Significant room to import substitution as Indian players are cost competitive in low to mid end machines segment 4) Increased focus on defence manufacturing indigenously. Company has proven track record of margin expansion yet there is still room for further expansion through selling high value machines.

Religare Enterprises Ltd

3%

Mid cap ▶ Finance

Religare Enterprises Limited (REL) is a leading diversified financial services group in India. REL is well positioned for substantial growth driven by multiple catalysts, including : 1) Strong Promoter backing and growth revival 2) Care Health remained key growth driver, supported by sector tailwinds. 3) Untapped SME lending market offers strong growth potential for REL.

Constituent-wise Rational

Paushak Ltd

3%

Small cap ▶ Chemical

Paushak Ltd, India's largest manufacturer of phosgene. The stock has seen a major correction in the last 3 years and is currently trading at attractive valuations. They are sitting on operating leverage which could lead to the improvement in margins and profitability going ahead. Paushak has a strong entry barrier as they operate in a highly regulated environment where nobody can easily enter.

Shivalik Rasayan Ltd

3%

Small cap ▶ Chemical

Shivalik Rasayan Ltd, India's underrated player in the agrochemical space, The company has a revenue target of ₹600 crore on a consolidated basis with EBITDA margins of around 22% in FY26. A lot many agrochemical and pharmaceutical molecules will go off-patent which is a massive size of opportunity for the company. They are also planning to enter the CSM business for pharmaceuticals and agrochemicals.

Constituent-wise Rational

TD Power Systems Ltd

3%

Mid cap ▶ Power

TD Power Systems Ltd is India's fastest-growing player in the BTG sector. As a debt-free company with extensive manufacturing capabilities and a proven track record, it stands to benefit from rising demand in the power sector. They are well-positioned to cater to the growing demand of the power industry.

Tara Chand Infralogistic Solutions Ltd

5%

Small cap ▶ Infrastructure

Tara Chand Infralogistic Solutions Ltd is an established player in equipment rental space having 4 decades of experience. Tara Chand has 3 business segments that are equipment rental, warehousing & logistics and Steel processing & distribution. The company is poised to grow due to factors such as: 1) India's focus on infrastructure development across the country 2) Capacity expansion in various industries such as steel, cement, oil & gas, etc. 3) Volume growth in steel due to expansion in Rashtriya Ispat Nigam Limited operations. Company has guided revenue growth of 25%, which will achieve according to our estimates.

CCL Products (India) Ltd

3%

Mid cap ▶ FMCG

CCL Products Ltd., a leading manufacturer & exporter of instant coffee, catering to both B2B & B2C markets worldwide. With over three decades of expertise, the company has established itself as a reliable supplier to major global brands, private labels, and retail chains. Its strong presence in over 90 countries, coupled with strategic manufacturing facilities in India and Vietnam, gives CCL a significant competitive advantage in the coffee industry. With a solid expansion strategy, a growing branded business, and an improving financial outlook, CCL Products remains a compelling investment opportunity for long-term investors looking for steady revenue growth and market leadership in the instant coffee sector.

Constituent-wise Rational

Kitex Garments Ltd

3%

Small cap ▶ Textiles

Kitex Garments Ltd is a leading infant and children's apparel manufacturer, supplying global brands like Carter's & Gerber. As the second-largest infant wear producer globally, Kitex benefits from cost-efficient operations, high-quality standards, and strong export demand. The company is expanding its production with a ₹3,500 crore investment in Telangana, creating a fully integrated "Farm to Finish" textile park to enhance efficiency and scale. Kitex is also well-positioned to benefit from the China+1 and Bangladesh+1 shifts, as global brands seek diversified, reliable suppliers. With its capacity expansion, supply chain advantage, and focus on automation, Kitex is set for long-term growth, making it a strong investment opportunity in the apparel sector.

Constituent-wise Rational

Krsnaa Diagnostics Ltd

3%

Small cap ▶ Diagnostics

Krsnaa Diagnostics Ltd. (KDL) has established itself as a pioneering low-cost diagnostic services provider through its Public-Private Partnership (PPP) model, enabling widespread access to quality healthcare diagnostics. With a presence in over 150 districts across 15 states and 3 union territories, Krsnaa offers a full range of radiology and pathology services at costs significantly lower than private peers. The company's volume-driven model, focus on underserved regions, and increasing penetration through government and institutional contracts position it well to ride the wave of rising healthcare demand in India especially in tier 2 & tier 3 cities. Strategic capital investment of ₹300 crore over FY24–26 is expected to further enhance its service capacity and reach.

Frontier Springs Ltd

3%

Small cap ▶ Railway

Frontier Spring Ltd has strong market position of around 50% market share in coaches and locomotive coil spring and improving financials make it a high-growth investment opportunity. With significant upside potential, margin expansion, Frontier spring is well positioned for sustained revenue and earnings growth over the next few years and to deliver long-term shareholder value.

PSP Projects Ltd

3%

Small cap ▶ Infrastructure

PSP Projects is well-poised to deliver significant growth due to factors such as: 1) Expected Synergies from the Adani Group 2) Strong order book position 3) Set up of new manufacturing plant for precast materials.

Constituent-wise Rational

Hariom Pipes Ltd

3%

Small cap ▶ Non-Ferrous Metal

The company's integrated business model, diversified product mix with a growing share of value added galvanized products, and strategic capacity utilization plans position it well to benefit from the strong domestic infrastructure and construction tailwinds. With robust volume guidance of 2.38–2.4 lakh MT for FY25 and a clear roadmap to achieve 3 lakh MT by FY26 without significant incremental CAPEX, Hariom is poised for sustained revenue and margin growth. Despite near-term volatility in steel prices, the company's ability to maintain healthy EBITDA per tonne due to its cost-efficient operations underscores its strong operating leverage. With revenue expected to reach ₹1,600 crore in FY25 and potentially ₹2,500 crore in FY26, we believe current valuations do not fully capture the company's earnings visibility and operating strength.
